

My dear Mr. Watson,

A letter from my niece Alice rec'd last Eof. gives the chance you may be waiting for me to say the colour of the curtains. I should say a light yellowish drab - If it is already done, no matter -

Please to have the kitchen floor oiled - But I should with the range changed & repaired first, if possible — kindest remembrances to

Mrs. Buell —

Sincerely yours,
James Gay —
